STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, AUGUST 27, 1912

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS

K. P. FAIR CLOSING IN A BLAZE OF GLORY

Pronounced by all Cleanest and Best
Ever Held in This Section—
Plans for Next Year.

The best and cleanest fair ever held in Lincoln county came to a close Friday. It was a success in every particular and the members of Duane lodge Knights of Pythias are being congratulated upon all sides. It was a fair to be proud of.

The attendance on the third and last day was about the same as the second day when a record breaking crowd was present. The last two days were more than offset the slim attendance caused by the rain of Wednesday, and pulled the financial part to the right side of the ledger. On all sides was heard the general comment that this was the best county fair held in this part of the state in many years. All were impressed with the good order maintained, the absence of liquor from the grounds; in fact there was no liquor on the grounds. But one man was seen during the three days under the influence of liquor and he was in that condition when he got to town. The K. P.'s saw to it that there was no bootlegging of any sort. One man brought a bottle to the secretary's office and thought to cache it there, but Jack Benzel found it and took it to the center of the ring and broke it against a tree.

With so satisfactory an exhibition in every way the K. P.'s are greatly encouraged to plan for a still better fair next year. They have reserved the same dates as this year, and expect to have a still better and bigger affair. It is proposed to have many new attractions to interest the people, among which will be a flying machine. Another feature which is being most favorably discussed is to make fair week next year a Home Coming Week for all former citizens of Lincoln county who are now living elsewhere. Other counties and sections have had their home coming and on this occasion all ex-Lincolnites are going to be invited back home, and made welcome. Other exercises in honor of the home-coming will undoubtedly be arranged, in addition to the regular fair program. This feature will undoubtedly prove a delightful event of fair week, and will prove one of the real events of the year in the history of the county.

The display of stock this season was of the finest at all times. The two Futurities attracted much interest. The Male Futurity was decided the second day when Bob Woods' great male fully beat out that of his brother, Jim Woods, for first honors. In the colt Futurity decided on the last day, Walter Walker's great young colt by Carroll Preston out of a mare by Henry Davey, was given the blue over W. H. Murphy's Bohemian filly. Mr. Walker has named this great colt, Interior Journal, and says he is the finest youngster of the year.

Only one unpleasant feature was noticed the last day and that was towards the close of the program when Edgar Doty, of Richmond, led his temper set the best of him, because he did not get the blue in a ring. He tore the red ribbon off his horse, and threw it on the ground and said some unpleasant things about the judges. President Jim Woods, of the fair, immediately censured Mr. Doty's entries for the rest of the program, and informed him he would not be allowed to speak again until he had apologized. Later, after cooling down, Mr. Doty apologized nicely to the association but was unable to find the judges who had served in that particular ring to make the apology honorable to. Such as this is liable to happen in any fair ring, and no judges can decide to please everyone.

The awards of Friday the last day were:

REV. JONES RESIGNS But Congregation Declines to Accept It and Grants Him Vacation

Rev. J. B. Jones, pastor of the Stanford Baptist church, tendered his resignation to the congregation Sunday morning, on the ground that his health required a complete rest for about two months. By a unanimous vote, however, the church refused to accept the resignation, and granted the pastor a leave of absence for two months on full pay. Mr. Jones has just returned from Battle Creek, Mich., where he spent a month taking treatment at the sanatorium there for a kidney trouble. He returned much improved, but his physicians all advised him that a complete rest for about two months would be necessary to restore him to complete health. Mr. Jones has worked nobly in the Master's cause since coming to Stanford about two years ago, and is well beloved by his people, who felt that there was an occasion for a severance of the ties which have bound him to them, and were very glad to do what they can toward bringing about a restoration of his health.

Dr. Cook Chosen Moderator

The one hundredth and tenth annual session of the South District Baptist Association of Kentucky closed last Friday at Gravel Switch. There was a large attendance. Dr. C. V. Cook, pastor of the Baptist church, of Danville, was unanimously chosen moderator for the ensuing year and E. H. Fox, also of Danville, was named as secretary for the sixteenth consecutive year. Several prominent Baptists attended from Stanford.

Cupid Was Busy at Local Boy's Wedding

A special from Frankfort says: The marriage of Miss Mary Belle Hobson, of this city, daughter of Chief Justice J. P. Hobson to Eugene Penn L. Carroll, of Minton, Louisiana, which is scheduled for October 14, will be the principal social event of the Autumn in Kentucky's capital.

The wedding will be a notable affair, for its one will be a notable affair. Misses of tender years said when the engagement was announced, "These water men always have a big wedding."

Such was the case last fall when Miss Helen O'Rear was married to Esau Caswell Sautley, of Stanford. The courtship of Esau Carroll has been going on for one year, for he met Miss Hobson for the first time when he came here to be the best man to Esau Sautley, and Miss Hobson was Miss O'Rear's bridesmaid.

No romances will develop from the Hobson-Carroll wedding, however, for Miss Hobson will have no bridesmaid, and Esau Carroll on best man.

Why the couple have decided to break the chain of romances they began is unknown, and the pretty girls of this city are trusting they will change the plan and have a wedding fully as elaborate as was the O'Rear-Sautley nuptial.

Morgan's Men Reunion

Judge J. W. Allen, of Stanford, attended the reunion of Morgan's Men at Still Springs last week, and was elected second vice president of the Morgan's Men Association. The other officers chosen were: President—B. W. Duke, Louisville.

First vice president—J. W. Bowles, Louisville.

Third vice president—U. S. Tenney, Lexington.

Chaplain—E. O. Guerrant, Wilmore.

Commissary—L. P. Young, Lexington.

Secretary and Treasurer—G. R. Keller, Carlisle.

Executive Committee—H. M. Taylor, Carlisle; W. H. Robb, Helena; J. H. Hunt, Lexington; S. G. Sharp; Covington; G. R. Keller, Carlisle; G. S. Wolf, Louisville.

On motion of Walter Mathers, of Mason, Gen. R. W. Duke was elected president of the association for life.

Local Boys Charged With Bootlegging.

Three Danville Advocate last Friday said: William Dalton and Courtland Traylor, two young men of prominent Lincoln county families, were arrested in Lincoln county this week by P. S. Marshall, J. A. Coleman. They are charged with selling liquor at Broadhead, several days ago. They are mere youths, one giving his age as fifteen and the other as seventeen. The young men entered pleas of not guilty and it is probable they will escape with the lightest possible sentence. They will be taken to London the last of the month for trial, after having their examining trial before Commissioner Lawhall, of this city. Only one charge is registered against the boys.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver, and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale by Penny's drug store.

WESLEY—BROWN Popular Young Couple Elope To Jeffersonville and Wed

Russell P. Brown, eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown, and Miss Ada Wesley, of Liberty, slipped away to Jeffersonville, Ind., in an automobile last Friday night, and were married there. But very few of their closest friends had been informed of their intentions, and these kept the secret well. The young couple went together to the fair dance on Friday night and mingled with the merry crowd until the intermission at midnight, when they quietly boarded an auto and sped toward the popular Gretna Green at Jeffersonville.

Miss Mobley Wins Dinner Set

Miss Ada Mobley, No. 10 in Sam Robinson's grand piano contest, won the handsome dinner set offered to the young lady who turned in the largest number of votes by Monday, the 26th. August Carlisle, Sr. of Louisville, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Fred Nichols and the probabilities are that he will stay the rest of the summer.

Mrs. J. D. Tucker has been very sick but is better at this writing. Frank Coleman sold two cows and calves to H. D. Boone but the price is unknown.

A. J. Manuel of Harvard has been spending a few days with his brothers in this section.

Rev. R. N. Noel, a prominent local Confederate veteran has received a letter from Capt. W. J. Stone, Pension Examiner at Frankfort informing him that no Confederate pensions will be paid before November 5, none of the applications having been acted on in time to be payable on August 5, which is the date next preceding November 5, on which the law directs such disbursements shall be made. While the announcement will be a great disappointment to many applicants the letter gives the assurance that back pay will be eventually forthcoming from the date that the application has been received at the examiner's office. Examiner Stone states that 2,600 applications are on file, and many others are being received daily.

W. H. Lewis, the negro Assistant Attorney General of the United States, has been chosen to canvass the South in the interest of the Republican ticket.

Former Lincolnite Here on Visit

Morgan Smith, of Van Alstyne, Texas, an uncle of Messrs. S. H. J. K. and M. S. Baughman, of this county, is here on a visit to them. Thirty years ago Mr. Smith went from Lincoln to make his home in the West, and is always cordially welcomed home on each of his periodic visits. Although now in his 84th year, he is a remarkably well preserved man, and from his appearance one would judge him to be not over 65. He declares that Stanford has shown wonderfully improvement since his last visit several years ago, and is delighted to see the evidences of progress and prosperity on all sides.

Conductor Goes Insane

Capt. Phil Price, who ran over the local division of the K. C., has been mentally deranged and is in a serious condition. Some time ago Mr. Price underwent an operation at the hospital at Richmond and had removed from his face a small piece of bullet with which he was wounded several years ago. The injury had given him much trouble in the past two years and upon the advice of his physician underwent the operation with the hope of securing relief.

In a short time following the operation Mr. Price had recovered sufficiently to leave the institution and resume his duties on the railroad, and was apparently much benefited by the treatment he received at the hospital. His illness at present is believed to be the result of the old injury. Mr. Price is an Odd Fellow and a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Boys' Work at State Fair.

James L. Dent, Secretary of the Kentucky State Fair, writes that boys from about fifty counties have made application and submitted essays in competition for the Farmer Boys' Encampment at the Kentucky State Fair during the week of September 9 to 14, at Louisville. No papers have as yet been passed upon so competition is still to all boys between the ages of 15 to 18 years, who will apply to him for blanks, or to the County School Superintendent. This should be done at once, as papers should be in the hands of the committee as soon as possible. The boy winning gets a free trip from the time he leaves his station until he returns, including transportation, board, entrance, to the fair, besides the instruction that is given by members of the faculty of the Agricultural Department of the State University.

Former Lincolnite Dies in Madison.

Mrs. Robert L. Doty passed away at her residence, the old Kyanaham home, on Monday, August 5, at five o'clock, says the Richmond Times. Her death was a great shock to the friends and relatives of the family, but had been confined for several months by a protracted illness and for some time previous to her death it was felt that she could not recover. Mrs. Doty was Miss Jane Aris Lackey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Lackey, of Lincoln county, where she was born March 1, 1861. She married Mr. Robert L. Doty on Jan. 28, 1885, and their children are: Robert L. Doty, Jr., Misses Hannah, Emma and Elizabeth and Master Malcom Doty, who with their father have the deep sympathy of all in their bereavement. The following brother and sisters also survive: Mr. Chas. Lackey and Miss Elizabeth Lackey, of Boyle county, and Mrs. D. Goode, of Lincoln county. Funeral services were conducted at the residence Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock by Rev. E. B. Barnes, of the Christian church, this city, followed by interment in the Richmond cemetery.

W. C. T. U. Social

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Stanford, gave a social last week at the Christian church. The ladies brought donations for the settlement school at Hindman, which is under the management of the W. C. T. U. There was served delightful frappe and egg kisses. Quite a nice box was filled with useful articles: 4 sheets, 30 pillow cases, 18 towels, 8 dresses and aprons and new muslin and calico for the girls to make up, about $3 worth, a nice jacket and a pair of shoes. Those who attended the social seemed to have a satisfactory time.

FINE PROSPECTS FOR RECORD MAJORITY.

Appeal Made Directly to Democratic
Voters For Money to Finance
Campaign in State

Splendid reports of prospects for an overwhelming democratic victory in Kentucky and the nation in November, were heard at a meeting of the democratic state campaign committee in Louisville Friday. Leading Louisville democrats entertained the state committeemen after their meeting and predictions for a record majority in Louisville and Jefferson county were made by leaders of the democracy of the Falls City.

In line with the proposition of Gov. Wilson, that the democrats are looking directly to the people for votes, and for support in this campaign, the matter of financing the campaign in Kentucky will be put directly up to the democrats of the state. The patriotism of every democrat will be put to the test. No corporation or corrupt money will be accepted for use in waging this fight. As Chairman Camden said: "Business and politics have been divorced, so far as the Democrats are concerned, so it is up to the individual voter to contribute his share toward defraying campaign expenses. The democratic party does not intend to obligate itself to big interests by accepting from them campaign contributions."

In line with this principle, the committee adopted a resolution as follows:

"Whereas, The Democracy of the nation is unqualifiedly opposed to contributions from corporate combinations and trusts, and the expenses of the presidential campaign on behalf of the Democracy must therefore be met by contributions from the people at large, be it Resolved, That each district chairman is chairman of the Finance Committee of his congressional district for the purpose of raising campaign funds."

In line with resolution, the Interior Journal will begin in its next issue the publication of an Honor Roll of democrats who contribute to the campaign fund, which will be used to roll up a great majority for Wilson and Marshall in Kentucky. Every democratic newspaper in the district is urged to do the same. There is going to be a pleasant rivalry as to which district in the state is able to raise the most money for this patriotic purpose, and the Eighth must not be behind.

A Kidney Remedy Advertisement

Brought Great Happiness

I take pleasure in stating that I have used Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root that I was greatly benefited by the same and have used it in my family. I had a son, when quite young he suffered from bladder or kidney affliction. I called in my physician, he attended him but did him no good. Almost by accident I noticed an advertisement about the curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. I procured a bottle and gave it to him according to directions. It cured him of what we thought was almost impossible and the same with others of my family. I have such strong faith in Swamp-Root that I have never done without it in my family since the wonderful cure of my son as well as myself. I recommend it to all who suffer from kidney or bladder troubles and I am led to believe that it is one of the best medicines for the purpose for which it is used, that has ever been discovered.

This is my experience from the use of Swamp-Root. Wishing the promoters of this wonderful medicine a large sale to the suffering public, I am Yours respectfully,

E. S. The highest priced sow sold for $335 and a boar sired by Defender sold for $225. A number of spring pigs averaged $28. The average of the entire sale was $70.

Two of the prize winning ponies, shown at the fair here last week, changed hands almost before they had been taken out of the rings, wearing the blues. Dick Scudder bought from Adam Pease, representing his sister, Mrs. W. J. Dozier a couple of beauties, one a mare and the other a horse, for $400 for both. Almost immediately afterwards, Mr. Scudder sold the mare to W. P. Grimes, whose son Joe had made such a good show with her in the ring. Mr. Scudder got $200 for her. He thinks, however, that the other pony is worth more, and is holding her at a much higher price.

Joe Miller, formerly of Lincoln, was at Crab Orchard and here a short time Saturday looking for horses for his great 101 Ranch west show which is now in Louisville. Mr. Miller did not find many animals which suited him, but picked up a stallion here which he bought from R. D. Holtzclaw for $350. The animal is a fine 5-year-old, and of golden yellow color, being very unusually marked in that respect, and a very handsome horse to look at. He is sired by Walter Walker's old sire of the same color, and he took Mr. Miller's fancy the minute he looked at him.

Public Sale of Land AND PERSONALTY.

As executor of James Robinson, deceased, I will sell to the highest bidder, at his late residence near and best located in Lincoln county, Ky., on

THURSDAY, SEPT. 12, 1912

The following personal property and real estate. The sale will begin promptly at 10 o'clock A. M. The farm is composed of about 265 acres and is about five and a half miles from Lancaster, six and a half mile from Danville, and about five and a half miles from Stanford, and is divided into tracts by the old Danville and Lancaster turnpike with about 170 acres in one tract, and about 95 in another.

This is an unusually well watered farm, the land lying practically level and is all under good fence. The farm will be offered in two tracts and then as a whole and the highest and best bid will be accepted. This farm is unequalled in central Kentucky in its fertility, beauty and convenience. What is known as the home tract has been used almost exclusively for a stock farm for fifty-seven years, about sixty five acres in virgin soil in blue grass, with some very fine sugar trees, walnut and ash timber. About sixty acres has been in blue grass about fifty years, without being plowed and the remainder of the place has been plowed only a few times in fifty years.

The home place is watered by six never failing springs, two wells, one good pond, and a large cistern. There is a large residence, a good stock barn, and a tenant house on the home place.

TERMS.—One third cash, one third in one year, one third in two years. Notes must be required and a lien retained upon the land notes bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent from the date of the sale.

Anyone desiring to look at this farm will call upon either J. E. Robinson, at Lancaster, J. A. Robinson, Jr., John C. Robinson, Danville, Ky., who will take pleasure in showing it. This will be sold without reserve or bid to the highest and best bidder. This is a rare opportunity to obtain one of the best farms in the blue grass of Kentucky.

The following is a part of the personal property: Twenty six 1200 pound cattle, quality good, five good milk cows, grade herefords, two good grade hereford heifers, one short horn bull, three calves, sixty stock ewes, one pair of aged work mules, one five-year-old mule, one four-year-old mule, five coming four-year-old mules, all well broken and good ones, three two-year-old mules and well broken, two brood mares, one mare mule colt, and twenty five stock hogs. Also about four hundred bales of hay, one Valencia plow, good as new, one cutting harrow, one McCormick binder, good as new, two two-horse wagons, two drug wagons, one slide and other farming implements—too numerous to mention, also about 30 acres of corn.

Dinner served on the grounds. Any further information call on

Two of the prize winning ponies, shown at the fair here last week, changed hands almost before they had been taken out of the rings, wearing the blues. Dick Scudder bought from Adam Pease, representing his sister, Mrs. W. J. Dozier a couple of beauties, one a mare and the other a horse, for $400 for both. grade, however, and prices did not go much over 5 cents. Mules were rather scarce, a few colts being seen and prices asked much too high, the buyers generally declared.

J. F. Gadsberry, a well known citizen of near Phil, Casey county, has been here for several days with Sam J. Bell, looking for a suitable Lincoln county farm to buy. Mr. Gadsberry is the right kind of citizen for any county and his friends here hope that he will get located in this section.

Tom Rankin, just over the Garrard line, who is preparing to feed several bands of mules for the southern market, was at Lancaster Monday, picking up the good ones that he could lay right. Mr. Rankin bought a nice mare mule from John Cress for $135.

Mr. Rankin bought a total of ten head of mules during the past week, from various parties, paying from $125 to $175 a head for them according to their quality. They were from four to six years old.

J. H. Thompson, of the Preachersville section, sold a couple of nice bunches of feeding cattle last week. One bunch went to Anderson of Boyle county. There were 20 of them and they weighed about 300 pounds each. Mr. Thompson got a nickel a head for them. He sold 20 thousand-pounders to Richard Cobb, just over the Boyle line, at 5 1-2 cents a pound, and they will be delivered in October.

George Spoonamore, one of the best known young Lincoln county farmers, bought the T. H. Robinson farm, on the Richmond road, two miles from Lancaster, this week, and will move there to make his home. There are 130 acres in the place, which is one of the finest little farms around Lancaster. Mr. Spoonamore paid $90 an acre for it. Hughes & Swinebrod, the hustling real estate men of Lancaster, handled the sale.

W. B. Burton, the well known horse and mule dealer of Lancaster, was on the look for some good stuff at court there Monday but didn't find much that suited him. However, he got a cotton mare mule from Ambrose Catco, of Garrard, which cost him $150. He also bought a nice mare from Will Chancellor, of the Walnut Flat section of this county, which cost him $135.

Will Libbard the Boyle county buyer, was at Lancaster Monday, and bought of G. D. Brayle, of Garrard 40 calves at $22.50 a head.

J. L. Hutchins, the well known Boyle cattle buyer, was in Lancaster Monday, and picked up a bunch of 500 to 600 pound cattle from various parties, which cost him an average of about 4 cents. He will graze them for a short time before sending them to market. Mr. Hutchins bought a span of 15 hand mare mule at the same place, which cost him $325.

H. G. Lutes, four miles from town on the Hustonville pike, bought from Granville Lutes, a drove of 40 hogs last week, which weighed about 200 pounds each. He paid about 7 1-4 cents a pound for them as they were good ones. They went in a shipment to the Cincinnati market. Mr. Lutes purchased five butcher cattle from B. F. Goode, of the Turnersville section, at 4 1-4 cents a pound.

An idea of the brick trade in cattle at Lancaster Monday can be obtained from the number of times a bunch of 40 head of 400-pound feeders changed hands. The cattle first came in from Pulaski and were sold by their owner C. C. Randolph, to Will Libbard, of Boyle. Mr. Libbard did not keep them long, soon disposing of them to Albert Owens, of Preachersville section at a profit of $15 on the bunch also.

T. D. Chestnut, of the Markslurry section of Garrard county, has been making some sales of jack and mule stock lately. He sold to Frank Robinson, of the same section, a jenny with a young jack colt for $290 for the pair. Mr. Chestnut sold a mare mule colt to Green Bowling, of the Morellins section of Boyle, for which he received $110. Itoh Thompson says he never saw finer corn than is growing on the 425 acres he has rented of his old place, and which he set in with Emory Hazley and Henry Hester, Mr. Thompson getting three-fifths of the crop by their deal. He is confident that it will go to 15 barrels an acre, and he has already refused $3.25 a barrel for it.

W. T. Robinson, than whom there is probably no more progressive and hustling farmer in Boyle county, bought a couple of good mules at Lancaster court Monday. He bought a mighty nice four-year-old 16 hand mule from Fleece Robinson, of Garrard, which cost him $260 and a three-year-old mare mule from Will Endry, of the same county, for which he paid $225.

A. R. Denny, of Garrard, bought Monday from William R. Royston, of the same county. A two-year-old mare mule, which cost him $275. Mr. Royston sold a pair of mules, one two and the other three years old, to Kammann & Hanson, of Garrard, who paid him $75 for them.

A. J. Thompson, of the Danville pike, bought a bunch of 19 feeding cattle from Will Hester, of the Lancaster pike, here last week. They weighed up about an average of 500 pounds each, and cost Mr. Thompson from 4 1-2 to a nickel a pound.

L. C. King, of the East End lost a fine brood mare last week which he valued at $175. She was knicked on the foreleg by another mare which was running in the pasture with her, and the bone fractured so badly that she could not be saved.

One of the nicest farms in this part of the state is to be sold at public auction on Sept. 12th, in the Robinson farm in the Hubble section. It offers a fine opportunity for any man hunting a money making opportunity in a blue grass farm.

G. W. King, of Xenia, Okla., who has been visiting his brothers, Messrs. A. V. and L. C. King in the East End, returned to his home in the west last week.

Everyone who visited the Floral Hall at the K. P. Fair was impressed with the splendid display of several farm products made by Mr. W. P. Givens, of the Shelby City section of this county. Mr. Givens had on exhibition three samples of alfalfa from his splendid farm, the display being the third cutting, and he expects to have about two more before the season is over. He also had splendid samples of oats, wheat, millet, clover and sweet clover. Mr. Givens took the premium on his turn display at the Blue Grass fair last year, defeating a Fayette farmer, who had been winning it for a number of years. This year that "ring" at the Blue Grass fair was cut out for some reason. Mr. Givens has been warmly congratulated upon his display at the fair here. It is proposed to offer several premiums for each display as this at next year's fair.
